Mr. Allison was married August 30, 1888, to Miss Cora Burleson, a daughter of Ira J. and Emeline (Hills) Burleson, natives of New York state. In 1893 they removed to Omaha, Nebraska, where they still make their home. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Allison has been blessed with two children: June E., who was born July 6, 1890, and is in school at Cedar Falls, Iowa; and J. Lester, who was born September 9, 1893, and is now a high-school student in Marathon.

Mr. Allison gives his support to the republican party, and is a Mason, belonging to the blue lodge and the chapter at Sioux Rapids, and to the commandery at Cherokee. He is also a Woodman and a Royal Neighbor and is prominent with the brethren of these various fraternal orders. He has met with success in his business undertakings and owns land in Dickinson county, Iowa, and also in Nebraska. His service in the bank is characterized by integrity, accuracy, promptness and courteous treatment of customers. In the midst of a busy life he finds time for cooperation in any movement for the advancement and betterment of the city and his high moral worth is acknowledged by all with whom he is associated.

SANFORD MILLER.

The Miller family has been prominently identified with the agricultural development and progress of Nokomis township for the past forty years, the first representative of the name to come to Buena Vista county being the father of our subject, Henry Miller, who came here in 1869 and entered from the government eighty acres of wild and unimproved land. The father was born in Pennsylvania but was reared in Ohio. In early manhood he was apprenticed to learn the blacksmith's trade, thus serving for seven years, after which he engaged in the blacksmithing business for a number of years. He was married in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Miss Elizabeth Hiles, a native of New Jersey. In 1858 he removed from Ohio to McLean county, Illinois, and there engaged in farming until 1866, when he removed to Madison county, Iowa, where he spent three years. He then made his way to Buena Vista county and entered from the government eighty acres of raw prairie land, which he developed and improved, meeting the problems of a frontier existence and applying himself to the tasks which western life presented, with steadiness and courage. He was not long permitted to enjoy his new home, however, for he passed away in 1871, at the comparatively early age of fifty-two years. The wife and mother survived for a long period, her death occurring in 1898, when she had reached the advanced age of eighty-two years.

Sanford Miller, whose name introduces this review, is the youngest son in a family of nine children, and was born in Brown county, Ohio, March 3, 1855. His education, begun in the common schools of Illinois, was continued in the schools of Iowa, for he was a lad of fourteen years at the time the family removed to Buena Vista county. He lost his father when a youth of sixteen years and much responsibility then rested upon the son. He at once took up the unfinished work of the father in developing a new farm. He set out an orchard and also put out shade trees, erected a good house, barn and outbuildings, fenced the fields with woven wire and made many necessary improvements. He assisted his widowed mother in the management of the home place and this continued to be her home until the time of her death. The son is now in possession of the property and is engaged in general agricultural pursuits and stock-raising, keeping Duroc Jersey hogs and Hambletonian horses. He homesteaded one hundred and sixty acres of land in South Dakota, but has recently sold that property.

Mr. Miller was married June 12, 1888, to Miss Anna Miller, a native of Kankakee county, Illinois. They have an adopted son, now thirteen years of age, who is attending school. Mr. Miller is independent in his political views and affiliations, voting for the men whom he deems best fitted for office, regardless of party ties. His religious faith is indicated by his membership in the Alta Presbyterian church. He is thoroughly familiar with the pioneer conditions that existed when he came as a boy to Buena Vista county and in the years that have since come and gone he has rejoiced in the progress that has been made. He is an industrious and useful man in the community and his probity is an unquestioned element in his career.

HENRY JACOBSON.

Henry Jacobson is a self-made man who has met difficulties with resolution, who has conducted his affairs with honor and who has in the end gained not only a good competence but also the merited esteem of his fellowmen. He was born in southern Norway in 1844, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kjensrud, who in 1856 crossed the Atlantic with their family. They landed first at Quebec and went to Lansing, Iowa, where they arrived on the 6th of August, 1856. The mother had become ill on the ocean and only lived for a short time after reaching Lansing, her death occurring when she was about sixty years of age. The father continued to reside at that place until his demise.

The sons and daughters in that family were as follows: Hawken and Engebert came to America but are now deceased. Ole, who had preceded the family to the new world, acted as their interpreter when the parents and other children arrived, meeting them in Quebec after waiting there for three weeks ere the ship brought them to harbor. He then escorted the family to Lansing, Iowa, and two weeks later he went west, being among the first to go to Pike's Peak, and when last heard from was in Australia. Syver was a farmer and landowner of Allamakee county, Iowa, for a number of years and then removed to South Dakota, where he died in 1905. Levi, who had also preceded his parents to America, lived in Allamakee county, Iowa, for some time and was then employed by the government to act as a teamster in Utah. Finally he arrived at Pike's Peak and when last heard from, about thirty years ago, was in Montana. Amund, who resided for a time in Allamakee county, became interested in the gold discoveries of the west and went to the mining reg

The listing is by generations. Succeeding generations are offset right about 3 spaces until this becomes unwieldy. Then reference is made to another label by => LABEL.
Dates are usually accurate unless they were derived from Census records, when they may be off by a year due to differing dates that the Census taker worked.
Dates followed by a "?" are +/- 3 years. Dates followed "!" are ball park figures, +/_ 10 years or more.
Most of the people listed lived in Southwestern Ohio. Others are marked where known.
This listing is incomplete, and reflects the state of my currant knowledge. It is an ongoing quest. Some of is probably inaccurate. Anyone who has any further information or corrections are requested to contact me.

Dear Linda,

I got your name and address from a Barbara in N. Ft. Myers, Florida. She said you have done a great deal of work on the Wilsons there in Brown Co., Ohio.

My Wilsons were in Adams Co. Ohio and I'm wondering if you may have some of the information of that particular line. I will put my rough chart on the back of this letter. I've never found much on my 2nd gr.-grandparents William McVey and Rebecca Lovejoy Wilson and I figure they moved away from Adams Co. O. Maybe Brown Co??

I was b. and raised in the Dayton, O. area. We moved here 6 yrs ago, I did not work my Ohio lines when I lived there, because I felt I'd always be there to do it. Ha! Fate can play some strange tricks.

I'm hopeful we are family, I enclose an S.A.S.E. for your reply. Thanks in advance for any info you can give me. I will be happy to pay copying fees and postage on material sent. Happy Hunting!!

05- DAVID, Jr (David, Joseph, Jeremiah, Benjamin,) born at Petersham, Mass. circa 1774, son of David and Marcy (Wilson)(Houghton) Wilson.
d. 1823 Clerm. Co., OH
2nd wf

1772-14 May 1850

He married at Petersham (VR) on 2 Feb. 1793 AZUBAH STONE, daughter of Reuben and Grace (Munroe) Stone. (Gregory Stone Genealogy (1918) by J. Gardner Bartlett, page 242)

David's parentage is established by a conveyance dated 16 Sept. 1799 whereby David Wilson of Putney, Vt. sold to David Wilson, Jr., also of Putney, one hundred acres of land in Williamstown, Vt. David, Jr. was in Williamstown by 1800 when the census showed him heading a household comprised of two males under 10 years of age, one male 26 - 45 years old, one female under 10 years and one female 26 - 45 years of age.

David Wilson, Jr. does not appear to have been related to any of the other Wilson families who resided in Williamstown at the same time, there are no real estate transactions between David and the other Wilsons and his name does not appear as witness on any other Wilson deeds. The last record found of him in New England is on 19 Mar. 1812 when for $30.00 David Wilson, Jr. of Williamstown sold to Abner Comstock sixteen acres of land "being the same parcel that David Wilson of Putney had deeded to him on 16 Sept. 1799". (Williamstown, Vt. Land Records, Vol. 6, page 110)

of Lewis County, Kentucky

Contributed by Dr. William M. Talley, P.O. Box 6070, Station 'A', Montreal, Que., Canada H3C 3GI

Note: Most of these suits are practically illegible. They were covered with water in the 1937 flood.

In the early 1790's, John Wilson and family moved from Eastern Pennsylvania to Lewis County (then Mason County) and settled on a huge, valuable tract of land, which was granted for military service. This large tract of land, still known as Wilson's Bottoms, was just below the famous Three Islands in the Ohio River. The Beal family later started litigation with the Wilsons over this land because they claimed they had been granted this tract through an earlier patent. For several years many law suits were filed in the Lewis County Court between the heirs of John Wilson and the Beal heirs. These suits give valuable genealogical information to anyone doing research on the Wilson family. The following records are abstracts of some of these suits. (Legal information other than that which gives genealogical help is omitted).

Fayette Co., Pa.

Copied and contributed by Dr. William M. Talley, of Montreal, Quebec, and Vanceburg, Kentucky.

File 174: Samuel Swearingen vs the heirs of John Wilson. Filed Oct. 1810.

Swearingen files suit against George Wilson, Drusilla Wilson, and Amos Evans, husband to Elizabeth, late Wilson, acting executors of John Wilson, deceased, and against George, Samuel, William, Elizabeth, Sarah, John, Mary Ann, Andrew, Ralph, and Thomas Wilson, heirs of the will of John Wilson, dec.

Swearingen claims that John Wilson, dec., became indebted to him on June 27, 1797, in Lewis Co. for $416.75. Also for $300, 90 French crowns, one French quinea weighing 5 dwt. and 3 grains; 2 pieces of gold weighing each 7 dwt. and 14 grains. John Wilson allegedly failed to repay this money and in his will made no provision for it.

see pg 67 herein for the 14 chn see more copy of "Md. to Ky." besides the 10 here are nancy, Phoebe, Cynthia, Robert

Included is a copy of the will of John Wilson, made in Fayette County, Pennsylvania, Mar. 4, 1793, and probated in Mason Co., Ky., Dec. 23, 1799. To wife, Drusilla "the plantation"; children: George, Samuel, William, Elizabeth, Sarah, John, Mary Ann, Andrew, Ralph, and Thomas; "eldest son, George"; mentions that his plantation is in Fayette Co., Pa., in the Forks of Cheat and that he has lands in Kentucky. Witnesses: (Note states - "Two Dutchmen. I can't make out their names.")

Samuel Swearingen was a resident of Adams Co., Ohio, at the time of this suit.

File 579: Norban B. Beal and others vs. George Wilson and others, Suit filed April, 1817.

Norban B. Beal; Wm. C. Gault and wife, Matilda, late Beal, heirs of Samuel Beal, dec.; Matilda A. Maupin (under 21), daughter of Harriett

Maupin, late Beal, one of the heirs of Samuel Beal, dec., and Richard A. Maupin, father of said Matilda and husband of Harriett Maupin, state that Samuel Beal, in April, 1780, made this entry: "Samuel Beal, assignee of William Fennie, who was assignee of Charles Scott, enters 2450 acres by virtue of Military Warrants, on the Ohio at the head of the first bottom below Three Islands, below the mouth of Scioto ..." The tract was surveyed May 27, 1785. Samuel Beal died in 1793 and the land descended to his children. "A certain Wm. George Wilson Sr., George Wilson Jr., Samuel Wilson, William Wilson, John Wilson, Ralph Wilson, Robert Wilson, Amos Evans and wife, late Wilson, Robert Snodgrass and wife, Anna, late Wilson, William Hendrickson and wife, Phebe, late Wilson, Cynthia Wilson, Nancy Wilson, Andrew Wilson, Thomas Wilson, and Drusilla Wilson, relict of John Wilson dec. (all except George Wilson Sr. being heirs of John Wilson dec.), and John Boyd, late the husband of Sarah Boyd, late Sarah Wilson, dec., and Wilson Boyd, James Boyd, and Thomas Boyd, children and heirs of the said Sarah Boyd, who was also one of the heirs of John Wilson dec., and James Boyd, are made defendants in this suit for an illegal claim under the vague entry in the name of John Smith."

An amended bill states that Isaac Lewis, Betsy Lewis, and Wm. Greathouse and wife, Jane, late Lewis, heirs of George Lewis, dec., also hold an uncertain title.

Deposition of George Stockton, taken at the house of John Faris, Flemingsburg, Mar. 3, 1817, (aged 70) states that he was acquainted with the Three Islands on the Ohio below the mouth of Scioto as early as 1776.

Deposition of Samuel Strode, taken Mar. , 1817, says he passed the Three Islands as early as 1776.

Deposition of Ellis Palmer, taken at the house of Samuel Wilson, Aug. 11, 1817, (aged about 53), says that in April, 1785, he came with John Waller up the Ohio River from Limestone and made a survey for one Beal. About 3 or 4 weeks after he was first up, he was up again with said Waller and others and made a survey a little below the mouth of Crooked Creek, then called Harbour Creek. Question: Was not the Three Islands a place of notoriety at that time? Answer: It was ever since I came to this country in 1784 and I heard them spoken of two years before I came.

File - - -: Samuel L. Blain vs. Myers, Fry, and others. Filed July, 1840.

(Note: This suit involves a conflict of lands claimed by both the heirs of Jesse Ewell and the heirs of Ephraim Blaine. John Wilson had once owned a portion of the land in controversey and his heirs were involved in the conflicting land claims.)

Jesse Ewell sold a portion of the grant in question to Capt. John Wilson. The said Wilson then sold a part of the land to Henry Myers on June 30, 1798. This tract of land interfered with Blaine's patent.

A notice of ejectment was sent to the Wilsons. The following are listed as the children, heirs-at-law, and legal representatives of Capt. John Wilson, dec.:

THE WILSON FAMILY

The will was proven at the Sept., 1828, term of the court and recorded in Will Book B, page 278. At the time the will was admitted to probate all the devisees were living. John Wilson, one of the devisees in said will, departed this life on (no date given) leaving Harriett Wilson, his widow, who has since intermarried with John Shortridge, and Eliza Gunyon (late Wilson) who intermarried with Absolum Gunyon and Adaline Lane (late Wilson) who intermarried with William Lane. The said Eliza Gunyon and Adaline Lane are the only children and heirs at law of sd. John Wilson, dec., who died intestate.

Hugh Wilson, one of the children of the said George Wilson dec., and devisee under the will, died, leaving a will which has been admitted to record in the Lewis County Court. He left a widow, Sally Ann Wilson and two children, to wit, Susan J. and Mary, the former having intermarried with Joseph Stapleton. Mary is an infant.

Mary Wilson, one of the devisees of sd. George Wilson dec., intermarried with Daniel W. Thomas, and afterward departed this life, leaving, William M. Thomas, her only child and heir at law.

Drusilla Wilson, another of sd. devisees, intermarried with Michael Doyal and afterwards departed this life without child or children, never having had issue, leaving her brothers and sisters her devisees.

The widow, Sophia Wilson, died in the year 1850. The other devisees under the will are still living. to wit: Lavina Goodwin, late Lavina Wilson, who intermarried with Moses Goodwin, now deceased. Elizabeth Woodruff (late Wilson) and, who is called in the will "Betsy", intermarried with Hiram Woodruff, Sarah McKellup (late Wilson) and, who in the will is called "Sally", intermarried with Uriah R. McKellup, now deceased; Cary Wilson; Herbert Wilson, and the plaintiff, Barton Wilson.

The devisees under the will(except the widow Sophia) were children of the testator and were his only children.

Other information given in the suit shows that:

1. Drusilla (Wilson) Doyal died in the spring or summer of 1843.
2. Granville S. Dye stated that he was told by Drusilla Doyal's husband in Aug., 1844, that Drusilla Doyal was dead and that she was buried in Platte County, Missouri. Dye says he married Drusilla's cousin.

THE WILSON FAMILY

In a counter-suit, filed March, 1838, between John and Hugh Wilson vs. Richard Nash, these variations are noted in the listing of John Wilson's heirs (as heretofore given in the previous suit):

1. Samuel Wilson's heirs: John G. Wilson is not listed. Eliza Wilson had married Mr. Burns. Amos Evans and wife, Eliza, are listed as heirs as well as Andrew Wilson and wife, Amanda, Ralph Wilson and wife, (nee Gilliland)—Martha; and Wm. Henderson and wife, Phebe. However, this latter listing must be in error for these are definitely the children of John Wilson dec.

2. Thomas Wilson's heirs: The same as previously except that John Wilson is given instead of Thomas Wilson in the latter listing.

3. John Wilson's unknown heirs are listed as: Sally Anne, Maria, Joseph and others unknown.

4. Nancy Hendrickson Longley's husband is named John Hendrickson.

5. Cynthia Wells's husband is named John Wells.

6. William Wilson's heirs: The same except that Henley Wilson is left out of the latter listing.

7. Anne Snodgrass' husband is named Robert Snodgrass.

File ---- : The executors of Samuel Wilson's will vs. William Herbert, June, 1839.

After the death of Samuel Wilson, several persons to whom he had sold land, sued his estate because of conflicting land claims. This suit was an attempt of his executors and heirs to come to terms with persons who were losing titles to their lands because of the previous litigation with the Ewells, Blaines, and Beals.

Included is a copy of the will of Samuel Wilson, made in Lewis County, Ky., Feb. 3, 1832, and probated Nov. 18, 1833. To wife, Susanna, the plantation "whereon I now live for a term of 12 years, but if she marries it is to fall into the hands of executors"; Heirs: James Wilson, Andrew Wilson, Mary Wilson, Eliza Wilson, George Wilson, Susan Wilson, Samuel Wilson, Mason Wilson, Amos Wilson, and Lucinda Wilson. At the end of 12 years the plantation to be divided among four sons: George, Samuel, Mason, and Amos. To son, Andrew, $800 in perishable property. To son, Joseph, now deceased, and his heirs, and my daughter, Nancy, "I have to give them no more, James having the amount of his dividend". To John Gay, "my son by my first wife", I give $100. Mentions lands in Indiana and Kentucky. Executors: sons, James and Andrew. Witnesses: Wm. G. Wilson, Curtis Lantz, Charles Hymes, and James Stephenson. (A note on the back of the will says: Nancy Wilson married William Herbert, of Manchester, Ohio.)

File ---- : Barton Wilson vs. Herbert Wilson and others, Aug. 1855.

Petition in equity.

Barton Wilson claims that George Wilson, late of Lewis County, deceased, made his will on Mar. 29, 1821, and in Feb., 1828, departed this life.

Dear Linda:

Many, many thanks for the information which you sent me on Stephen Wilson of Brown County. You have certainly done a tremendous amount of work on the Wilsons. I would be most interested in having a chart on your husband's line that goes back to Maryland. Who knows - it might fit in one day. My Robert and Mary Wilson were in Cabell County, (West) Virginia in 1800. That's right on the Ohio River as you know, and they had to have come from someplace back over the mountains.

Is there any definite information that you have that Stephen Wilson's parents were Robert and Mary Russell Wilson of Virginia? I could not tell from your notations. If the 1830 census age bracket for Robert Wilson is right, (it places him in Vermilion County, IL) then as a man 50-60, he would have been born earliest 1781. I have no other fix on his age. Mary Russell Wilson as apparently born in 1783 and was also listed as being 50-60 on this 1830 census. This would make them too young to have parented Stephen Wilson born 4 June 1796. But those censuses could be wrong. I do have Mary on the 1860 census as being 77 years old and living with her son Jeoffrey in Newell Township, Vermilion Co., IL so the 1783 birthdate is more or less verified on two censuses. But - at any rate, if you have any concrete information from your end on Stephen's parents, I would be most interested.

Enclosed is what I have on Robert and Mary Wilson. They are the great grandparents of my grandmother, Sarah Amanda Wilson. Mary Wilson's Estate settlement in 1867 is the document that verified the lineage. We had found on an 1867 plat map that "Mary Wilson's heirs" owned a farm right in the area where Robert and Mary were known to have lived. Robert's Will has not been found, and their graves have not been located, although the feeling is that they were buried in Gundy Cemetery in Newell Township, Vermilion Co., the nearest cemetery.

The people who settled in Newell Township (earliest being about 1825) came out of Virginia and North Carolina from Preble, Butler, Brown, Clermont, Scioto and Adams Counties in Ohio, and many of them lived in Indiana before coming into Illinois. I have found Robert's son Jeoffrey, in Warren County, Indiana and my direct ancestor, Lewis Wilson, was married in Warren County which suggests the family was there after they left Cabell County and Ohio -- the Warren County dates are1829-ish. Thomas Wilson was in Vermilion Co in 1830 when he bought land.

The Wilsons were apparently on the Ohio River in Cabell County for the births of several of their children - Jeoffrey in 1805, Lewis in 1811 and Mary Ann in 1817 as confirmed on censuses etc. There is a Robert Wilson on the 1810 Census in the Virginia Supplement Census.

In Mary Wilson's Estate settlement, Stephen was named as a living brother (child of Mary's) but not an heir and not in Illinois. So I have been looking for him in Ohio, possibly staying behind on land the family bought when they came in from Virginia -- and I have been checking the censuses having no other clue. There was a Stephen Wilson up in Ross County but he was too old. And that's what led me to the Stepehn in Brown County. I have no proof on my end that my man did indeed live in Brown County -- but I certainly hope he did! If you have anything that gives his parents as Robert and Mary Wilson, we have him pinpointed!

If you would like a xerox of Mary Wilson's Estate settlement, a handwritten affair, I would be glad to send it. And if you want what I have on the other Wilson children

I would be glad to send that, too. It really isn't much more than appears on the family group sheet except for my own Lewis Wilson and his sister, Mary Ann Oliver, but you're welcome to them. And if and when I uncover more, I'll be very glad to share it with you. I worked briefly in Warren County, Indiana last April, and hope to do some more work in October when I am in the vicinity of Danville, IL in Vermilion County which has fine research materials on those border Indiana counties. I really want to get to Cabell County one day and also to the Ohio counties where so many of my lines passed through.

One further comment, apparently most of the Wilson children came to Indiana and then to Vermilion County, IL with their parents. My own ancestor (although he died young out in Iowa) had a son who settled just north of Vermilion Co. in Lovejoy Township of Iroquois County --this is John Benton Wilson. And my grandmother and mother were both born in this township, and I go back frequently on farming business that had its roots back 100 years ago in this township.

Next time you are in the library would you see if Jane Wilson who married a Lockwood and who also was a named heir on her mother's Estate settlement can be identified on the 1860 census..... what I mean is there a Lockwood in Brown Co on that census. It could be she stayed behind, too, when the family moved west.
THAT WOULD BE GOOD CONFIRMATION THAT IT WAS MY WILSON LINE

I have another line that also is partly in Brown County, too. You can see from my 4 generation chart one Elizabeth Jolly, an ancestor of John Benton Wilson. She was the daughter of David Jolly and apparently some of the family settled in Hillsborough in Highland County and some were in Brown County - and the father, David Jolly, Sr., died in Chillicothe in Ross Co. There are several people working on the Jolly lineage, and quotes keep coming in from Brown Co. If you happen to have a copy of the History of Brown County and would be willing to xerox off any Jolly pages, I would be most grateful. Researching ones lineage from Beaufort, South Carolina is not easy!

Again, many many thanks for your prompt answer. Enclosed is reimbursement for your xeroxing and extra postage. I'll be most interested in your own Wilson chart as I said and especially in anything on Stephen's parents being identified in local Brown County resources.

Sincerely,

Ruth Gilmour

In the deliberations of these organizations he has always taken an active part, and upon one occasion read a carefully prepared, scholarly paper before the latter society upon spinal concussion, which displayed profound erudition and which elicited great praise from the members of that body. He is also identified with the American Medical Association, through the medium of which he has made the aquaintance of many of the most distinguished professional men of the country.

Dr. King has been twice married, the first time in 1865 to Miss Martha Haynes, who died in 1881, leaving him one son, Frank King, at the present time a resident of Piqua, Ohio. Mrs. King was born near Harveysburg, Ohio, the daughter of James and Martha Hayne, both parents members of old and prominent Quaker families of that state. The second marriage was solemnized in 1883 with Miss Belle Reed, a union without issue. The Doctor has long been prominent in Masonic circles, belonging to the lodge in Greenfield, also to the Royal Arch chapter and council. He is past commander of Samuel H. Dunbar Post No. 92, G. A. R., and at the present time holds for the second term the position of medical director of the state encampment. He is also a member of the United States board of pension examiners. In various ways the Doctor has been and is identified with the material prosperity of the city of his residence and his name is usually found in connection with all enterprises for the public welfare. He is vice-president of the Citizens Natural Gas, Oil and Water Company, of which he was one of the chief promoters and organizers. For [illegible] period of forty years he has been connected with the Christian (or Disciple) church, and is now an elder of the congregation with which he is identified. The Doctor has been successful financially as well as professionally, having accumulated a sufficiency of material wealth to place him in independent circumstances. He owns a beautiful home and office on West Main street, which he built some years ago and where, surrounded by all that is calculated to make life pleasant and agreeable, he passes his leisure time in quiet and content. In every relation of life he is recognized as an upright, worthy and conscientious man, and his name is destined to occupy a conspicuous place for years to come on the roll of Greenfield's progressive citizens.

ADAM F. WILSON.

b. 11 Dec. 1836
Ripley, Br. Co., O.

Descended from sturdy pioneer ancestry and inheriting the patriotic fervor for which a number of his antecedants were noted, the gentleman whose name introduces this sketch is entitled to prominent notice among the representative citizens of Hancock county. The Wilson family originated in Ireland and was represented in America as early as the colonial period. While en route to the new world, and yet on the ocean, the subject's great-grandmother gave birth to a son and after reaching their destination she and her husband settled in Northumberland county, Pennsylvania. They were among the earliest pioneers of that part of the Keystone state, their arrival antedating by some years the war for independence. Later they located near Pittsburg and as the population increased in that section they came further west until reaching Brown county, Ohio, where they made a home which long remained in possession of the family. They died there many years ago and are remembered as among the early permanent settlers in that part of the state.

The son born on the ocean was Samuel Wilson; he grew to maturity in Pennsylvania and when a young man accompanied his parents to Brown county, Ohio. While living in Pennsylvania he married a Miss Campbell, who bore him nine children, namely: James, Elizabeth, Samuel, Robert, ISAAC Isabelle, Sarah, Jane, Jacob and Campbell, all long since dead. About the year 1835 Samuel Wilson moved his family to Hancock county, Indiana, and located a home in section 23, Center township. He was one of the first white men to settle in that part of the county and many are the anecdotes related of his skill as a huntsman and prowess as a pioneer. He was a typical backwoodsman of the age in which he lived, strong and lithe of body, bold and independent of spirit, capable of enduring all kinds of hardships and vicissitudes without murmur or complaint. He cleared and improved a great deal of land, became a good farmer and after living a long and useful life and providing well for his family, quietly passed into the great unknown, leaving to his descendants a fair name and an unblemished character.

James Wilson, oldest son of Samuel, was born in Northumberland county, Pennsylvania, and when a lad of about fourteen went with the family to Ohio. In his youth he worked on a flatboat plying between the cities of Pittsburg and St. Louis and when his parents moved to Ohio he assisted them to make the journey down the river in two canoes lashed together, the lad managing one of the boats. He remained for some years on the old homestead in Brown county and in addition to agricultural pursuits worked for a while at teaming, a vocation which proved quite remunerative before the days of railroad traffic.

In the year 1839 James Wilson decided to join his parents in the new Indiana country. Meantime he succeeded in accumulating considerable property, the greater part of which he converted into money; the remainder he loaded on two wagons, to each of which were hitched three horses, and thus equipped the journey was made. Reaching Hancock county he settled on one hundred and sixty acres of land in section 10, Buck Creek township, a part of which is now occupied by the village of Mohawk, the rest being in possession of his son, the subject of this review, who holds the original patent issued by the government. It is proper in this connection to state that Mr. Wilson made a tour of the country prior to moving hither and being pleased with his prospect located the above claim and erected thereon a small cabin for the reception of his family when they should arrive. This was as early as 1835 and the patent was obtained as soon thereafter as it could be forwarded from the land office at the national capital.

Mr. Wilson added to his original purchase and became one of the progressive farmers of the county. He was successful in all of his undertakings and amassed a handsome competence, much of which is still in possession of his children. The maiden name of his wife was Katherine Flaugher; she was a native of Brown county, Ohio, and became the mother of the following children: Mahala, widow of the late James A. Murphy, of Buck Creek township; Henry died at Nashville, Tennessee, while in the army; Thursy, deceased; Adam F., of this review; Maria, deceased; Clementine, widow of Charles Wallsmith; Naomi, deceased; Marian married M. W. Deshong and lives on the home farm; Allie and Eliza J., the last two dead.

As a man and citizen, James Wilson was very popular; his character was always above reproach and the honesty of his motives was never questioned. Politically he was an ardent Democrat; religiously he was at first a Methodist and later a member of the United Brethren church.

Adam F. Wilson was born near the town of Ripley, Brown county, Ohio, December 11, 1836. Reared in Hancock county and in a comparatively new and undeveloped country, he was not permitted to enjoy the educational privileges which fell to farm boys a few decades later, his whole time being taken up with the labor required to fit his father's farm for cultivation. He remained at home until his twenty-ninth year when he was joined in matrimony to Miss Elizabeth J. Lain, the ceremony which made the two man and wife being solemnized January 17, 1864. Mrs. Wilson was born in Bartholomew county, Indiana, daughter of Jacob and Sarah Lain, natives of North years prior to his marriage Mr. Wilson entered the army, enlisting July 4, 1861, in Company B, Eighth Indiana Volunteer Infantry, and serving with an honorable record until discharged on the 29th of April, 1863. He shared with his comrades the fortunes and disasters of war and was in a number of noted campaigns, proving his loyalty to the stars and stripes on some of the bloodiest battlefields of the south. By reason of disability he did not serve his full time, returning home nearly a year before the expiration of his period of enlistment.

Mr. Wilson lived on the home farm until 1896, when he moved to his present place in Center township, known for many years as the Barnard farm. He owns two farms of two hundred and twenty acres of fine land, which is well improved with good buildings, fences and drainage, the advanced condition of the places indicating the labor and care devoted to them by the enterprising owner. Mr. Wilson has followed agricultural pursuits all of his life and for a number of years has ranked with the most enterprising and successful farmers and stockraisers of the county. In the year 1882 he platted the town of Mohawk and from 1883 to 1894 inclusive was engaged in merchandising and grain dealing there, in addition to which he also operated a saw-mill for several years. He was the first postmaster of Mohawk and in various ways has contributed to the growth and development of the village, which promises to become one of the leading local trading points in the county at no distant day.

Mr. Wilson has seen Hancock county grow from a sparsely settled country into one of the most prosperous and thriving sections of central Indiana; he remembers when wild game of all kinds was plentiful and when a youth many deer, wild turkeys and other denizens of the forests fell before his unerring rifle. He also recalls the period when people found their way through the dense woods by means of blazed trees and went to mill and market on horseback instead of with vehicles as is the custom today. Bears and wolves often prowled round the little log cabin in which his childhood and youth were spent and not infrequently has he seen these animals waiting for a favorable opportunity to attack cattle or invade the barnyard.

In all the wonderful transformations which have taken place since he was a boy Mr. Wilson has been no mere spectator, but an active and potent factor in bringing about results such as now exist. He has given freely of his time and energy for the general good and hesitated not when necessary to contribute liberally by his influence and means to promote the material interests of the township and county.

Mr. Wilson comes of patriotic stock, several of his ancestors having borne distinguished parts in the early American wars, while seven of his mother's uncles took part in the noted battle of New Orleans. He proved his loyalty to the flag by facing the hosts of treason in many sanguinary contests and in civil life has demonstrated in his own experience, to the best of his ability, his highest ideal of American citizenship. In politics he is a supporter of the Democratic party, but has never consented to accept official position nor aspired to public distinction. He has been satisfied to pursue the even tenor of his way as a farmer and business man, doing good in a quiet and unostentatious manner when opportunity presented itself and living up to the full stature of manhood as an active factor in the body politic.

He finds in his home and in the society of his amiable wife a solace for all the cares and ills of life, which happily for him are few and those few under circumstances quite easily endured. Mr. Wilson is a member of the United Brethren church, as is also his wife, both being active members of the congregation with which they worship; fraternally he belongs to the Grand Army of the Republic, holding membership with the post at Fortville. Mr. Wilson's family consists of one son, Ulysses G. Wilson, who is a farmer and horseman and is the present trustee of Buck Creek township, living at Mohawk.

CHARLES J. RICHMAN.

Deeds are thoughts crystallized, and according to their brilliancy is judged the worth of a man to the community, as in his work is found a true index of his character. The study of the life of the representative American never fails to afford much pleasing and valuable instruction, for in the career of every man is to be found the embodiment of great ideas as well as the power rightly applied to reduce these ideas to concrete form for the good of the individual and the world. The present auditor of Hancock county, whose name initiates this review, is a worthy representative of that type of American character and progressive spirit which promote public good in advancing individual prosperity and conserving popular interests.

Charles G. Richman is a native of the county of Hancock and a son of Anton F. G. and Mary K. (Meier) Richman, the father a prominent citizen of New Palestine engaged in farming and banking (see sketch elsewhere in these pages). He was born November 10, 1869, and had the good fortune to be reared on a farm, the fruitful soil from which have sprung the majority of our great men, together with the

4 November 1982

Dear Linda,

I hope that this letter finds you well and that the house is shaping up. It would be good to have things comfortable before winter comes. Perhaps most of the work is done by now.

School started two months ago, my youngest entering kindergarten. My husband was off work for two weeks, and I made trips to the Enoch Pratt Library and the Peabody Library. The Peabody Library, also here in Baltimore, has an extensive collection of historical and genealogical material. Their address, along with some others, will be at the end of this letter. I did get some data which may prove helpful to you.

First, perhaps you would want to look at the enclosed listing on Maryland counties and their formation. It may help to explain why families are often not found where expected. The boundary between Maryland and Pennsylvania was fixed in 1761.

At Pratt were several books of marriages, including "Maryland Marriages 1634-1777" and "Maryland Marriages "1778-1800". In them are the following:

1) 7 Dec. 1752: Benjamin Wilson, son of Thomas and Elizabeth, married Lydia Job, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth, recorded in the Nottingham Monthly Meeting of the Society of Friends. (I noticed that the same names were given as parents of both the bride and groom...don't know if thisis an error or just coincidence. There is a note that abstracts of these records are on cards at the Maryland Historical Society...their address will also be listed herein.)

2) 2 Apr. 1795: Benjamin Wilson, son of Benjamin and Lydia, married Anne Sidwell, daughter of Hugh and Anne, recorded in the Nottingham Monthly Meeting of the Society of Friends, Register of Marriages 1730-1889.

The county of residence was not included in the records It would seem that the first Benjamin was too old to be Job's father. However, one of my ancestors was in his forties when he entered the Civil War as a private, and my own parents were married nearly 23 years when their last child was born.

Also from the first of the above books is the following:

3) 27 Apr. 1777: Edward McDaniel married Ann Owens in Anne Arundel County.

Numerous other McDaniel marriages were listed, though none for Walter or other first names you mentioned in connection with his family.

I don't know why, but I forgot the name Jacobs when checking these marriage books. You can be sure, though, that I will check on my next trip.

I did look for Jacobses in census reports. What I found for them, Wilsons and McDaniels is in this letter.

First is information found in a 1776 census recorded in a book entitled "Maryland Records: Colonial, Revolutionary, County, and Church" Vols. I and II, at the Peabody Library. At this time Frederick County included land which a year later became Washington and Montgomery Counties. In some counties, each household was listed with the head of the household named and remaining persons shown only by sex and age group; in other counties, every individual was named and specific ages given.

Second is information found in regular Maryland censuses on microfilm at the Pratt Library. ~~This is grouped by year and then by surname and includes county of residence.~~

Well, that is a lot of information and 99% of it probably unrelated to those individuals you are seeking.....however, no stone unturned.....

I hope that it gives you one or two leads. Many people have been of great help to me. A gentleman in Oklahoma related distantly to my husband just sent me a xerox copy of an entire book chronicling 120 years of one family, with names, dates, births, deaths, marriages, and many personal accounts. So, I am glad to be of whatever help I can to you.

Following are some addresses. There are some things I want to check or recheck when I can make another trip or two but don't know when that will be. In the meantime, you may have the time to write a few letters.

Peabody Library 17 East Mt. Vernon Place Baltimore, Maryland 21201	- They have a book of Westmoreland County, Penn. records, which they may be willing to check for references to McDaniels.
Enoch Pratt Free Library Central Library - Reference Dept. 400 Cathedral Street Baltimore, Maryland 21201	- They have Maryland census microfilms and may check where you have page numbers.
Maryland Historical Society 201 West Monument Street Baltimore, Maryland 21201	- As I mentioned, they have abstracts of records of Society of Friends, along with many, many other references.
Patricia Neely Swarthmore College Swarthmore, Pennsylvania 19081	- This is the college of the Society of Friends. I was told this lady can be of great help in check old records. Perhaps they have a record of baptism or marriage for Job Wilson.

Linda, I hope that your husband's condition is improving satisfactorily. Sometimes we don't see the progress we'd like, but if we trust in the Lord the end result will be to our good. I trust that you and your family feel His love about you in the care of your friends, your relatives, and the church. Let me hear from you when you have a spare moment, just to let me know how you are...it doesn't have to wait for genealogical purposes.

Maryland Hall of Records
St. John Street
Annapolis, Md. 21404

Prince George Co. Hist. Soc.

God bless,

Loretta

P.S. As I prepared to type an envelope for this letter, I was struck by a doubt as to whether my last letter was sent to your new address or the old...perhaps you never received it. When you informed me of your husband's accident and your circumstances, I wrote a brief letter of a more personal nature. If it never arrived, please know that you have been in my prayers. Though we have never met, I feel that we have much in common...I hope that more than genealogy it is our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Mrs. Amzie Wilson Is Victim Of Saturday Night Tragedy

HAD BEEN ILL

Leaves Five Sons, Four Of Them Serving In Armed Forces

Mrs. Louisa Cochran Wilson, 54, who has four sons in service and one discharged after 7 years in service, lost her life in the Ohio river Saturday night when she accidently fell into the water while collecting kindling wood along the bank.

The tragedy occurred back of the Wilson home, 2 1-2 miles west of Aberdeen. Mrs. Wilson and her husband, Amzie Wilson, had been at Ripley Saturday afternoon and arrived home about 4 o'clock. They had planned on going to Ellsberry Saturday night to be with Mr. Wilson's father, who is critically ill. They had stayed with him Friday night. A short time after arriving home from Ripley Mrs. Wilson was missed. Sheriff Dwight Clemons was called shortly before 9 o'clock and informed of her strange disappearance.

About 9 o'clock her body was found in the river back of the home by Louis Bromfield. Accompanying him were John Struble and Russell Wilson, Jr. The body was found in about 3 1-2 feet of water with an oar.

County Coroner George P. Tyler, Sr., was called and rendered a verdict of accidental drowning. It is presumed that Mrs. Wilson had gone to the river bank to get kindling, had become dizzy, stumbled over a log and fell into the river.

In addition to her husband, Mrs Wilson is survived by five sons Pvt. B. M. Wilson, Florida, Pfc Woodrow H. Wilson, Hawaii, Sgt Harry Wilson, Germany, Sgt. Francis Wilson, Germany and Ross Wilson, Colgate, Okla. She also leaves three sisters, Mrs. Alex Grierson, Ellsberry, Mrs. Emil Jacobs, Aberdeen and Mrs. Clark Day, Bethel, Ohio.

Definite funeral arrangements will not be completed until word is received from the son in Oklahoma. But it will probably be held at the Church of Christ Sunday afternoon. Burial in the Aberdeen Charter Oak Cemetery under the direction of R. W. Kirkpatrick.

Mentally Alert And In Good Health, Ripley Woman Has 95th Birthday

One of Ripley's oldest and most beloved ladies today is well past another of the few remaining milestones in her path to becoming a centenarian. 8-12-1948 RB

She is Mrs. Josephine Henry, who celebrated her ninety-fifth birthday Aug. 4 at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Lora Russell, on Front Street.

The matriarch af a clan that includes sixchildren, 14 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren, Mrs. Henry was much felicitated on this happy occasion. She was the recipient of many gifts and cards, and the honored guest at a dinner that included many of her progeny.

Sharing the pleasure of this occasion with her and Mrs. Russell were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Russell (Emma Henry), of Ripley; Mr. and Mrs. George Henry, of Indianapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Andrew (Hattie Henry), of Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. James W. Henry, of Oxford; Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Weber, of Cincinnati; James S. Wilson, of Ripley; Charles Wilson, of Cincinnati; and several of the grandchildren.

Mrs. Henry was born in Union Township, the second of the ten children of James and Harriet Stephenson Wilson. She has lived her entire life in and near Ripley except for the time she has spent visiting her children. Her husband, Thomas Henry, died many years ago.

Mentally alert and with good eyesight, Mrs. Henry enjoys truly remarkable health. Her only infirmity is that her hearing has become slightly impaired.

She keeps abreast of current events and is pleased with many forms of modern entertainment, particularly the radio.

Her oldest remembrance is about the time, when as a child, of seven or eight, her father drove her to the "Eliza House" so that she could meet the Rev. John Rankin, who lived there then. She recalled him as a "bewhiskered, fierce-looking" old man. This memory was so clear to her that she insisted upon being driven up to the Rankin House shortly after it was dedicated a few weeks ago so that she might see Mr. Rankin's picture. She laughingly declared that "the old fellow doesn't look half so mean as when I first saw him." And that was almost 90 years before!

Among Mrs. Henry's deceased brothers and sisters was Cornelius Wilson, one-time treasurer of Brown County, and Mrs. Bertha Wylie, wife of Dr. Alexander Wylie, local physician.

RB Last week Mr. Tom Wilson and daughters of Mercer, Mo., visited his aged sister Mrs. Kada Wilson, whom he had not seen for over 38 years. 8-28-1947

Frances Jane Toler. Her father left his family & went to KS, worked for the RR and had free travel. Much later was hit by a train & killed. Her mother remarried in OH & new hsb didn't want Frances Jane or her bro. $\overset{wm}{\text{Sherman}}$ as they were too young to work. They were left in a field near the Wilson's Children's Home, found, taken in & raised there. When Frances Jane was 16 yrs. Noah F. Wilson took her to work in their home & later she was persuaded to marry his son, altho she didn't want to. Her brother $\overset{wm}{\text{Sherman}}$ was raised in the children's home, then lived & died in Hamersville, OH. - never married. The children's home burned & all records lost. Chn by her mother & father were: Viola 6 yrs, Anderson 4 yrs., Francis Jane 3 yrs., Sherman 2 yrs., twins Melissa Ann 1 yr. & the other twin died @ 6 mo. old - these ages were when they were left at the home so left ca 1880 or 81. Her mother had several chn by the 2^{ND} hsb & they lived in Indiana. Per oral oration by Isabella (geddau) ($\overset{nee}{\text{Wilson}}$) Fritz Fall 1976 stating this is what her mother had told her.

(The following letter and list of children was taken from the December issue of the People's Defender in 1885 by Rheta Campbell and passed along to us to share with each of our members)

The following is a list of the names and ages of the children in the Home and it is given to facilitate Santa Claus in the distribution of presents. Will the Defender please publish and oblige the children?

Very Truly yours,

SPECIAL TRIBUTE TO HELEN ROUSH of the Regional Planning Commission office in the Adams County Court House, she not only helps our members find books in the Archives, Opens the Archive door on our Thursday, informs Genealogists about us, sells our publications, but she is always leaving us Genealogy bits of value and donated several Kentucky items of interest as well as copies of Brown and Adams County Historical Societies' bulletins. We thank her publicly for all the assistance she has given us.

HONORARY MEMBERSHIP -- Our past President, Evelyn Scalf, was made an Honorary Member of the Society at the February meeting. She is not 'retiring' from genealogy, but just 'easing' up a bit after so much work and effort of being involved in the Society's infant first two years. She mentions such things as, "now I can search for my own lines for a change". We wish her all success in this, and want her to know that so many of us appreciate her work, and the starting of the Society back in November 1978.

There is an old cemetery called the Old Greenhill Cem. It is my husband's family Cem. named for George Greenhill & his wife Elizabeth Bailey Greenhill. I have also been there several yrs. back. It was grown up with trees in graves and so thick you could barely walk. Now it has been cleaned up Thanks to John D. Greenhill and a number of his friends. Here are the directions:Going east out of Olive Hill about a half mile across Fields Bridge to the right [a car wash is on left] make a right on Three Pines Road, you will come to a sharp left hand turn where the old railroad use to be, go left there are several roads here but only one making a sharp left turn, follow this road until you come to Mountaintop, here are several roads that fork, one goes left, one goes to the right and there are several roads that intersect here, make a sharp left up the hill, you will come to Mountaintop Church and Cem., stay on this road until you come to Parker Road, go out this road until you come to Kenton Wilburn's farm, 240 Parker Rd. The Old Greenhill Family Cem. is on his farm, you drive though his pasture to get to it. If this doesn't make sense let me know I'll try again. Bette
